SMART BUILDING OPPORTUNITIES

Qatar's Most Comprehensive
Construction Business Platform

CONSTRUCTION SECTOR IN QATAR

The successful bid for any investor

The government's aim to diversify the economy, with an emphasis on non-oil sectors, will drive funding towards construction projects over the forecast period (2018 – 2022). In addition, government efforts to upgrade the country's transport infrastructure and 2022 FIFA World Cup construction works will support the industry's growth. In fact, the construction industry's output value is expected to grow at 15.13% between 2018 and 2022, according to a Timetrics report.

PROJECT QATAR

The region's "Top Performer" with a legacy of supporting the construction community in Qatar

Returning this year for its 17th edition, Project Qatar, the International Construction Technology and Building Materials Exhibition, contributes to Qatar's dynamic building industry with its solid investments and tremendous trading capacity, removing any barriers between investors, suppliers and important proprietors and purchasers in Qatar.

Bolstered by 16 years of experience in the Qatari market, Project Qatar is the biggest and most comprehensive construction business platform. The exhibition attracts leading brands from around the world and connects industry professionals to high-ranking decision makers in Qatar, making way for lucrative partnerships and agreements.

SPORTS VENUES

Qatar plans to allocate around QR20 bn worth of funds to rebuild selected areas in and around Doha city as part of the second phase of massive infrastructure works in preparation for Qatar's hosting of the World Cup in 2022. In exactly four years, football history will be made when the first kick-off at the 2022 FIFA World Cup takes place in Qatar. The Supreme Committee for Delivery and Legacy (SC) have already redeveloped two stadiums for the World Cup while seven others are in various stages of construction. With the completion deadlines fast approaching, there hasn't been a more demand for sports venues suppliers of all phases of construction, and thus an opportune time to enter the market and grab a share of it for companies from all over the world.

SMART DISTRICT

After its great success in its first debut in Project Qatar 2019, Smart District will be bringing together international industry experts seeking to actively contribute to Qatar's Smart Nation Program, under a dedicated product zone for smart technology providers, innovators, entrepreneurs, urban planners, and other industry specialists showcasing cutting-edge innovation in building, energy, and transportation that aim to contribute to Qatar's digitized cities.
